CALL FOR PAPERS 會議徵稿啓事

Comparative education is constantly evolving as educational priorities and dynamics change. Individuals and institutions involved in comparative education face the challenge of maintaining core values while adapting to new circumstances. In this conference, we will reflect on the nature of the changing times and on the contributions of individuals and institutions in developing high quality scholarship to ensure the relevance and validity of comparative education.

Co-organised by the Comparative Education Research Centre (CERC) in the Faculty of Education at the University of Hong Kong, in celebration of its 20th anniversary
